*Two roads diverged in a yellow wood
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;*

*Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that, the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,*

*And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black,
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how leads on to way
I doubted if I should ever come back.*

*I shall be telling this with a sigh.
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I –
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.*

Oath Of Hippocrates

I do solemnly swear by that which I hold most sacred that I will be loyal to the Profession of Medicine and just and generous to its Members.

That I will lead my life and practice my Art in uprightness and honor.

That into whatever house I will enter, it shall be for the good of the sick to the utmost of my power.

That, holding myself aloof from wrong, from corruption, from the tempting of others to vice, I will exercise my Art solely for the cure of my patient and will give no drug, perform no operation for a criminal purpose, even if solicited, far less suggest it.

That whatsoever I shall see or hear of the lives of men which is not fitting to be spoken, I will keep inviolably secret.

These things do I promise. And in proportion as I am faithful to this, my oath, may happiness and good repute be ever mine. In the opposite if I shall be foresworn.

DON'T QUIT

*When things go wrong as they sometimes will
 When the road you're trudging seems all up hill
 When the funds are low and the debts are high
 And you want to smile, but you have to sigh
 When care is pressing you down a bit
 Rest if you must, but don't you quit!
 Life is queer with its twists and turns
 As everyone of us sometimes learn
 And many failure turns about
 When you might have won had you stuck it out!
 Don't give up though the pace seems slow
 You may succeed with another blow
 Success is failure turned inside out
 The silver tint of the clouds of doubt
 And you never can tell just how close you are
 It may be near when it seems so far
 So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit
 It's when things seem worst that you must not QUIT!*

FRIENDSHIP

*Friendship is a precious gift that cannot be bought or sold
 But its value is far greater than a mountain made of gold
 For gold is cold and lifeless, it can neither see nor hear
 And in the time of trouble, it is powerless to cheer
 It has no ears to listen, no heart to understand
 It cannot bring you comfort or reach out a helping hand
 So when you ask God for a gift, be thankful if He sends
 Not diamonds, pearls or riches, but the love of a real true friend.*

CONGRATULATIONS LISA!!!

*We love you and ...
 We are so proud of you!*
